The Scandinavian Psychoanalytic Review

The Scandinavian Psychoanalytic Review is published under the auspices of the Psycho-Analytic Societies in Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden, Component Societies of The International Psycho-Analytic Association.

The aim of the journal is to cover the development of psychoanalysis in Scandinavia. Contributions are therefore, principally, from members of Scandinavian Psycho-Analytic Societies as well as candidates in training, and from psychoanalysts from other countries who have read papers at psychoanalytic meetings in the Scandinavian countries. When space permits, the Review also publishes papers from non-Scandinavian psychoanalysts.

The Scandinavian Psychoanalytic Review is published in English. The main section of the Review comprises original papers on psychoanalysis. The Review also contains regular reports on the scientific activities of the Scandinavian Psycho-Analytic Societies, as well as a selection of some of the papers read at the biannual Scandinavian Psychoanalytic Congresses.

The Scandinavian Psychoanalytic Review is edited by Henning Paikin M.D. in collaboration with Jukka Välimäki M.D., Finland,
Randolf Alnæs M.D., Norway,
Andras Pöstényi M.D., Sweden.

Editorial Office: Henning Paikin,
